

QUINEICIA JONES

CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING GRADUATE STUDENT

CONTACT

 346-406-6319
 quineiciaj@gmail.com
 Spring, Tx 77373

EDUCATION

GRAND CANYON UNIVERSITY

M.S. Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Present

Expected 1/6/2027

STRAYER UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Business Administration

2020

SKILLS

Active listening
Rapport-building
De-escalation
Emotional regulation
Trauma-informed approaches
Documentation
Crisis prevention
Cultural sensitivity
Collaboration
Boundaries

SUMMARY

Elementary School Teacher and CMHC graduate student with strong experience supporting children through emotional, behavioral, and academic challenges. Skilled in rapport-building, de-escalation, trauma-informed care, and culturally responsive support. Seeking a practicum site to apply counseling skills and gain supervised experience.

EXPERIENCE

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TEACHER

Aldine Independent School District

2019 - Present

- Provide social-emotional support and behavioral interventions.
- Implement restorative conversations, conflict resolution, and de-escalation strategies.
- Support students with ADHD, anxiety, trauma, and emotional dysregulation.
- Maintain documentation, behavior logs, and progress notes.
- Foster a trauma-informed, structured, culturally responsive environment.

COUNSELING TRAINING

Counseling theories
Ethics
Biopsychosocial assessment
DSM-5-TR basics
Crisis intervention
Group counseling
Multicultural counseling

PRACTICUM AVAILABILITY

Available any day except Tuesdays; flexible evenings and weekends.